CANDIDATES CARDS.

To the voters of the City of Newport News: I am offering myself as a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney at the next democratic primary, and if consistent with your duty, you can give me your support. I shall promise you if elected to serve all faithfully, fearlessly and conscientiously.

To the Democratic Voters of the City of Newport News: I announce my candidacy for Sergeant of the City. Primary to be held June 12, 1909. Since I have been Sergeant of the City, I have endeavored to do my duty honestly and efficiently. I shall appreciate the support of the people.

To the Citizens of Newport News, Va.: At the coming primary election to be held in this city under the auspices of the City Democratic party for the purpose of nominating a candidate for High Constable of this city, I do not think I need any introduction to the citizens of Newport News, and if I should be honored with your votes and influence, and be the successful candidate of my party, I shall endeavor, if elected to the office in the general election, to honestly and conscientiously fulfill the duties of the same.

CANDIDATE'S CARDS.

To the Voters of Newport News: I had the honor to represent the city of Newport News and the counties of Warwick, York, New Kent, Charles City and James City, in the Legislature which convened on December 4, 1901, and was in session until April 2, 1902 (a period of four months).

This same Legislature was re-assembled in Extra Session on July 15, 1902 (by call of the Governor), for the purpose of putting into effect the new Constitution of Virginia.

We were in actual extra session for a period of eight (8) months during the years 1902-3-4, and in the meantime, I was re-elected in November, 1903, without opposition, to represent the City of Newport News in the next General Assembly (the Legislature of 1901 having redistricted the State, and given the five (5) counties a separate member of the House of Delegates).

The "Extra Session" expired, by adjournment, sine die, on January 12, 1904, and the succeeding Legislature convened on the following day, January 13, 1904.

On March 3rd, 1904, I was granted an indefinite sick leave of absence, on account of a severe attack of grippe, which confined me to my room until March 11th, on which day I resumed my duties in Richmond until final adjournment on March 15th.

The General Assembly, having completed its work and having adjourned sine die, with no probability of being called back in extra session, I resigned my seat, principally, on account of poor health. Many of my friends, I have no doubt, recall this fact.

Now, I am again seeking election as your representative in the next House of Delegates, and beg to say, that, having represented our City for a period aggregating more than fourteen (14) months during the four years 1901-2-3 and 4, I feel that my knowledge, experience and influence, acquired during my long association with my fellow members of the General Assembly (many of whom are "left in the harness") left me fairly well equipped, to again, look after the interests of our City, in an intelligent and faithful manner.

Therefore, I have decided to enter the Democratic Primary on June 12th next, as a candidate for nomination to the next House of Delegates.

I will gratefully appreciate your vote and support.

Most respectfully,
L. P. STEARNES.

To the Voters of Newport News: I shall greatly appreciate your support for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney subject to the Democratic primary. Since occupying this office I have endeavored to discharge my duties faithfully, and I hope that my efforts will be accorded your approval at the polls. Respectfully,
CHARLES C. BERKELEY.

To the Citizens of Newport News, Va.: At the coming primary election to be held in this city under the auspices of the City Democratic party for the purpose of nominating a candidate for High Constable of this city, I do not think I need any introduction to the citizens of Newport News, and if I should be honored with your votes and influence, and be the successful candidate of my party, I shall endeavor, if elected to the office in the general election, to honestly and conscientiously fulfill the duties of the same.

Respectfully,
ERNEST C. COX.

To the Citizens of Newport News: I am a candidate for the office of High Constable, subject to the Democratic primary, June 12th, 1909. If nominated and elected I will endeavor to discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability. Very respectfully,
C. R. BLASSENHAN.
